Summer Break Camp Registration Opens in April

Summer Camp Registration for Surprise residents will begin on April 5; registration for non-residents will begin April 19.

Summer Camp is a fun-filled program which includes crafts, games, field trips and guest speakers. This program is state licensed; therefore a copy of birth certificate and immunizations as well as additional paperwork is required. Parents will be required to sign their child in and out each day. Please have your child bring a sack lunch. Registrations will be accepted at the City of Surprise Parks & Recreation Office located at 15960 N. Bullard Avenue by appointment only. Appointments can be made by calling the Parks & Recreation office at 623.222.2000.

Please note: 2021 Summer Camp participants will be required to register by the week, not by the day.
